REPORT

Review No. 19-4114

The Board of the Office of Congressional Ethics (hereafter “the Board”), by a vote of no less than four members, on August 9, 2019, adopted the following report and ordered it to be transmitted to the Committee on Ethics of the United States House of Representatives (hereafter “the Committee”).

SUBJECT: Representative Rashida Tlaib

NATURE OF THE ALLEGED VIOLATION: Rep. Tlaib’s campaign committee, Rashida Tlaib for Congress, reported campaign disbursements that may not be legitimate and verifiable campaign expenditures attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes. If Rep. Tlaib converted campaign funds from Rashida Tlaib for Congress to personal use, or if Rep. Tlaib’s campaign committee expended funds that were not attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes, then Rep. Tlaib may have violated House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law.

RECOMMENDATION: The Board recommends that the Committee further review the above allegation concerning Rep. Tlaib because there is substantial reason to believe that Rep. Tlaib converted campaign funds from Rashida Tlaib for Congress to personal use or Rep. Tlaib’s campaign committee expended funds that were not attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes.

VOTES IN THE AFFIRMATIVE: 5

VOTES IN THE NEGATIVE: 0

ABSTENTIONS: 0

MEMBER OF THE BOARD OR STAFF DESIGNATED TO PRESENT THIS REPORT TO THE COMMITTEE: Omar S. Ashmawy, Staff Director & Chief Counsel.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CITATIONS TO LAW

Review No. 19-4114

On August 9, 2019, the Board of the Office of Congressional Ethics (hereafter “the Board”) adopted the following findings of fact and accompanying citations to law, regulations, rules and standards of conduct (in italics). The Board notes that these findings do not constitute a determination of whether or not a violation actually occurred.

I. INTRODUCTION

A. Summary of Allegations

1. Rep. Tlaib’s campaign committee, Rashida Tlaib for Congress, reported campaign disbursements that may not be legitimate and verifiable campaign expenditures attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes. If Rep. Tlaib converted campaign funds from Rashida Tlaib for Congress to personal use, or if Rep. Tlaib’s campaign committee expended funds that were not attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes, then Rep. Tlaib may have violated House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law.
2. The Board recommends that the Committee further review the above allegation concerning Rep. Tlaib because there is substantial reason to believe that Rep. Tlaib converted campaign funds from Rashida Tlaib for Congress to personal use or Rep. Tlaib’s campaign committee expended funds that were not attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes.

B. Jurisdiction Statement

3. The allegations that were the subject of this review concern Rep. Rashida Tlaib, a Member of the United States House of Representatives from the 13th District of Michigan. The Resolution the United States House of Representatives adopted creating the Office of Congressional Ethics (“OCE”) directs that, “[n]o review shall be undertaken ... by the [B]oard of any alleged violation that occurred before the date of adoption of this resolution.”<sup>1</sup> The House adopted this Resolution on March 11, 2008. Because the conduct under review occurred after March 11, 2008, review by the Board is in accordance with the Resolution.
4. The Resolution, consistent with House Rule XI, clause 3, permits the investigation into an “alleged violation by a Member, officer, or employee of the House of any law, rule, regulation, or other standard of conduct applicable to the conduct of such Member, officer, or employee in the performance of his duties or the discharge of his responsibilities.”<sup>2</sup> Because the conduct at issue relates to a successful campaign for election to the United States House

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended of Representatives, review by the Board is in accordance with the Resolution and House precedent.<sup>3</sup>

C. Procedural History

5. The OCE received a written request for preliminary review in this matter signed by at least two members of the Board on April 12, 2019. The preliminary review commenced on April 13, 2019.<sup>4</sup>
6. On April 15, 2019, the OCE notified Rep. Tlaib of the initiation of the preliminary review, provided her with a statement of the nature of the review, notified her of her right to be represented by counsel in this matter, and notified her that invoking her right to counsel would not be held negatively against her.<sup>5</sup>
7. At least three members of the Board voted to initiate a second-phase review in this matter on May 10, 2019. The second-phase review commenced on May 13, 2019.<sup>6</sup> The second-phase review was scheduled to end on June 26, 2019.
8. On May 13, 2019, the OCE notified Rep. Tlaib of the initiation of the second-phase review in this matter, and again notified her of her right to be represented by counsel in this matter, and that invoking that right would not be held negatively against her.<sup>7</sup>
9. The Board voted to extend the second-phase review by an additional period of fourteen days on June 7, 2019. The additional period ended on July 10, 2019.
10. The Board voted to refer the matter to the Committee on Ethics for further review and adopted these findings on August 9, 2019.
11. The report and its findings in this matter were transmitted to the Committee on Ethics on August 16, 2019.

D. Summary of Investigative Activity

12. The OCE requested documentary and/or testimonial information from the following sources:
  - (1) Rep. Rashida Tlaib;<sup>8</sup>

<sup>3</sup> See e.g., In the Matter of Allegations Relating to Representative Ruben Kihuen, H.R. REP. NO. 115-1041, at 5, n. 24 (2d Sess. 2018) (“[T]he Committee has repeatedly noted it has jurisdiction over ‘misconduct relating to a successful campaign for election to the House’”).

<sup>4</sup> A preliminary review is “requested” in writing by members of the Board of the OCE. The request for a preliminary review is received by the OCE on a date certain. According to the Resolution, the timeframe for conducting a preliminary review is 30 days from the date of receipt of the Board’s request.

<sup>5</sup> Letter from Omar S. Ashmawy, Chief Counsel and Staff Dir., Office of Cong. Ethics, to Rep. Tlaib, April 15, 2019.

<sup>6</sup> According to the Resolution, the Board must vote (as opposed to make a written authorization) on whether to conduct a second-phase review in a matter before the expiration of the 30-day preliminary review. If the Board votes for a second-phase, the second-phase commences the day after the preliminary review ends.

<sup>7</sup> Letter from Omar S. Ashmawy, Chief Counsel and Staff Dir., Office of Cong. Ethics, to Rep. Tlaib, May 13, 2019.

II. REP. TLAIB MAY HAVE CONVERTED CAMPAIGN FUNDS TO PERSONAL USE

A. Applicable Law, Rules, and Standards of Conduct

14. Federal Statutes

Pursuant to 52 U.S.C. § 30114(b)(1) “[a] contribution or donation [to a candidate or member of Congress] shall not be converted by any person to personal use.”

15. Federal Regulations

Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(I), “[p]ersonal use means any use of funds in a campaign account of a present or former candidate to fulfill a commitment, obligation or expense of any person that would exist irrespective of the candidate’s campaign or duties as a Federal officeholder. . . .

Personal use includes but is not limited to the use of funds in a campaign account for any item listed in paragraphs (g)(1)(i)(A) through (J) of this section . . .

(I) Salary payments by a candidate’s principal campaign to a candidate in excess of the lesser of: the minimum salary paid to a Federal officeholder holding the Federal office that the candidate seeks; or the earned income that the candidate received during the year prior to becoming a candidate. Any earned income that a candidate receives from salaries or wages from any other source shall count against the foregoing limit of the minimum salary paid to a Federal officeholder holding the Federal office that the candidate seeks. The candidate must provide income tax records from the relevant years and other evidence of earned income upon the request of the Commission. Salary shall not be paid to a candidate before the filing deadline for access to the primary election ballot for the Federal office that the candidate seeks, as determined by State law . . . If the candidate wins the primary election, his or her principal campaign committee may pay him or her a salary from campaign funds through the date of the general election, up to and including the date of any general election runoff. If the candidate loses the primary, withdraws from the race, or otherwise ceases to be a candidate, no salary payments may be paid beyond the date he or she is no longer a candidate. . . . During the time period in which a principal campaign committee may pay a salary to a candidate under this paragraph, such payment must be computed on a pro-rata basis.”<sup>9, 10</sup>

16. House Rules

House Rule 23, clause 6 states: “A Member, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner— (a) shall keep the campaign funds of such individual separate from the personal funds of such individual; (b) may not convert campaign funds to personal use in excess of an amount representing reimbursement for legitimate and verifiable campaign expenditures; and (c) except as provided in clause 1(b) of rule XXIV, may not expend funds from a campaign account of such individual that are not attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes.”

17. House Ethics Manual

The House Ethics Manual states, “Members have wide discretion in determining what constitutes a bona fide campaign or political purpose to which campaign funds and resources may be devoted, but Members have no discretion whatsoever to convert campaign funds to personal use. Furthermore, House rules require that Members be able to verify that campaign funds have not been used for personal purposes.”<sup>11</sup>

The House Ethics Manual states, “[a] Member’s use of campaign funds for federal office is permissible only if it complies with the provisions of both the House Rules and [the Federal Election Campaign Act].”<sup>12</sup>

According to the House Ethics Manual, “a Member or employee must take reasonable steps to ensure that any outside organization over which he or she exercises control – including the

<sup>9</sup> The Federal Election Commission (“FEC”) explained that “payment of a salary to a candidate is not a prohibited personal use as defined under Commission regulations since, but for the candidacy, the candidate would be paid a salary in exchange for services rendered to an employer.” See Using Contributions to Pay Salaries to Candidates, 67 Fed. Reg. 76961, 76971-73 (Dec. 13, 2002). In reaching this conclusion, the FEC explained: “[B]ecause many candidates must forego salary in order to conduct the business of the campaign, a candidate who is dependent on an income is put at a severe disadvantage compared to an incumbent who is free to campaign at all times without any reduction in compensation or to an affluent challenger, who can afford to campaign without receiving any compensation.” Id. at 76971. Put differently, “candidates without significant resources might not be able to forgo salary payments in order to run for Federal office.” Id.

<sup>10</sup> When determining whether a salary payment made after the general election is permissible, the FEC considers when the right to compensation accrued to a candidate, as opposed to the date on which the salary payment is made. See FEC First General Counsel’s Report, MUR 7068, Mowrer for Iowa (Dec. 5, 2016); FEC Conciliation Agreement, MUR 7068, Mowrer for Iowa (August 31, 2018). A candidate may be paid a salary payment after the general election date, so long as the payment is solely for work performed up through the date of the general election, and not for work done after that date. Id. The “controlling factor” in these circumstances is whether salary payments covered a period after an individual “ceases to be a candidate,” which is expressly prohibited. See id.; see also 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(I) (“If the candidate loses the primary, withdraws from the race, or otherwise ceases to be a candidate, no salary payments may be paid beyond the date he or she is no longer a candidate.”).

B. Rep. Tlaib May Have Converted Campaign Funds to Personal Use Through the Receipt of Salary Payments During an Impermissible Time Period

18. FEC regulations permit candidates to receive salary from their campaign committees when certain specific conditions are met.<sup>14</sup> Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(I), salary payments to a candidate are permissible if they are:

- Paid by the candidate's principal campaign committee;
- The lesser of (a) the minimum salary paid to a Member of Congress, or (b) the earned income that the candidate received during the year prior to becoming a candidate;
- Paid no sooner than the filing deadline for access to the primary election ballot for the office that the candidate seeks (as determined by state law);
- Paid for work performed up through the date of the general election (if the candidate loses the primary, withdraws from the race, or otherwise ceases to be a candidate, no salary payments may be paid beyond the date he or she is no longer a candidate); and
- Computed on a pro-rata basis.<sup>15</sup>

The payment of salary to a candidate that does not meet these specific conditions is considered per se personal use.<sup>16</sup>

19. According to the FEC, "payment of a salary to a candidate is not a prohibited personal use" when the above-conditions are met "since, but for the candidacy, the candidate would be paid a salary in exchange for services rendered to an employer."<sup>17</sup> In coming to this conclusion, the FEC observed that candidates that are not independently wealthy or do not have the benefit of an incumbent's salary "might not be able to forgo salary payments in order to run for Federal office."<sup>18</sup>

20. Rep. Tlaib appears to have been the type of candidate contemplated by the FEC when it implemented rules permitting candidates to receive a salary. Documents provided to the OCE by Rep. Tlaib suggest that Rep. Tlaib did not have the financial means to campaign full-time without being compensated by her campaign committee. Documents, however, also suggest that Rep. Tlaib failed to comply with the specific requirements set forth in 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(I).

i. The Campaign's Decision to Pay Rep. Tlaib a Salary

21. On February 5, 2018, Rep. Tlaib registered her principal campaign committee, Rashida Tlaib for Congress, with the FEC.<sup>19</sup> The following day, Rep. Tlaib announced her candidacy for the United States House of Representatives.<sup>20</sup>
22. When she announced her candidacy, Rep. Tlaib was employed as the Community Partnerships & Development Director at the Maurice and Jane Sugar Law Center for Economic and Social Justice (“Sugar Law Center”).<sup>21</sup> At some point after her announcement, to devote more time to her campaign, Rep. Tlaib substantially reduced her work hours at – and accordingly her pay from – the Sugar Law Center.<sup>22</sup>
23. In an April 4, 2018 email, Rep. Tlaib first advised her campaign manager, Andy Goddeeris, and her campaign consultant, Steve Tobocman, that she was “struggling financially.”<sup>23</sup> She went on to state: “I was thinking the campaign could loan me money, but [campaign staffer] Ryan [Lomonco] said the committee could actually pay me. I was thinking a one time payment of 5K.”<sup>24</sup>
24. In response to her email, Goddeeris explained that he wanted to consult with Michigan-based election law attorney Mark Brewer about the decision to pay her, but then acknowledged “we need you at full strength, and you’re not at full strength if you’re having to worry about your finances. If it’s legally permissible I want to do what’s necessary so that this campaign doesn’t dig you a hole you’re struggling to get out of.”<sup>25</sup> Tobocman echoed Goddeeris’s comments, noting that he was “100% committed” to Rep. Tlaib getting the money she “need[ed] to stay focused” on her campaign.<sup>26</sup>
25. On April 27, 2018, Rep Tlaib emailed a larger group of campaign staff about her personal financial concerns.<sup>27</sup> In this communication, she explained that she was “not going to make it through the campaign without a stipend,” and requested “$2,000 per two weeks but not exceeding $12,000.”<sup>28</sup>

26. Emails between campaign staff members during this timeframe indicate that staff was considering whether, and to what extent, the campaign could permissibly pay Rep. Tlaib a salary for her work performed on behalf of her campaign.<sup>29</sup> The campaign independently researched the issue and consulted attorney Mark Brewer on the matter.<sup>30</sup> The campaign concluded that Rep. Tlaib could legally be paid for her services to the campaign.<sup>31</sup>
27. The decision to pay Rep. Tlaib a salary from the campaign remained a source of concern for Rep. Tlaib, and thus for her campaign staff, throughout her campaign.<sup>32</sup> Ultimately, the campaign paid Rep. Tlaib $45,500.00 between May 7, 2018 and December 1, 2018.<sup>33</sup> The chart below identifies the date, FEC disbursement description, and the amount of each payment made to Rep. Tlaib by her campaign committee:

ii. Permissibility of the Salary Payments Made to Rep. Tlaib

28. As discussed above, FEC regulations identify a specific set of circumstances in which payment of salary to a congressional candidate would not run afoul of personal use prohibitions, and thus be permissible.<sup>34</sup> Rep. Tlaib, through her counsel, argues she complied with these conditions; however, several documents provided to the OCE by Rep. Tlaib suggest otherwise. Specifically, documents provided to the OCE indicate Rep. Tlaib was paid for work she performed after November 6, 2018 – the date of the general election.
29. The OCE requested an opportunity to interview Rep. Tlaib in order to address her potentially problematic salary payments. Rep. Tlaib declined to interview with the OCE. Likewise, campaign staff members with knowledge of her receipt of salary payments also declined to interview with the OCE.

Documents suggesting Rep. Tlaib was paid for work performed after November 6, 2018

30. Rep. Tlaib provided the OCE with a spreadsheet identifying salary payments made to various campaign staff members and herself (“Campaign Salary Spreadsheet”).<sup>35</sup> The Campaign Salary Spreadsheet – included below in relevant part – suggests Rep. Tlaib received two salary payments that were likely for work performed after November 6, 2018.<sup>36</sup> The spreadsheet indicates that Rep. Tlaib was paid $2,000.00 on November 16, 2018 for work performed between November 1, 2018 and November 15, 2018, and was thereafter paid $15,500.00 on December 1, 2018 for work performed (or to be performed) between November 16, 2018 and December 31, 2018:

31. Checks produced to the OCE by Rep. Tlaib also suggest that Rep. Tlaib was paid for work performed after November 6, 2018.<sup>37</sup> Notably, the November 16, 2018 check includes the following notation in the bottom left-hand corner: “Salary (11/1 – 11/15).”<sup>38</sup> Additionally, the December 1, 2018 check includes a notation with the dates “11/16 – 12/31.”<sup>39</sup>

32. The OCE notes that the Campaign Salary Spreadsheet and November 16, 2018 check suggest that part of the November 16, 2018 payment was likely for work performed between November 1, 2018 and November 6, 2018. Payment for work performed during these six days would be permissible; payment for work performed after that date is prohibited.<sup>40</sup>
33. In addition to the Campaign Salary Spreadsheet and checks, Rep. Tlaib produced emails that indicate she was paid for work she performed after November 6, 2018. An email from her campaign treasurer states that Rep. Tlaib’s December 1, 2018 check for $15,500.00 was payment for the period of “Nov. 16, 2018 to December 31, 2018.”<sup>41</sup>

34. Another email from her campaign treasurer included a spreadsheet that discussed the December 1, 2018 payments to campaign staff.<sup>42</sup> The spreadsheet, included below, suggests that at least $8,000.00 (of the $15,500.00 payment) was paid to Rep. Tlaib for work performed after the general election, and $7,500.00 was an unspecified “adjustment.”

35. Because Rep. Tlaib refused to interview with the OCE, the OCE could not address these potentially problematic payments with her. Likewise, the OCE was unable to address these documents with members of her campaign staff given their refusals to interview with the OCE.<sup>43, 44</sup>

<sup>43</sup> Rep. Tlaib produced a spreadsheet which identifies each payment made to her between May 7, 2018 and December 1, 2018 and provides an amount of “salary deferred” during the period. The deferrals total $15,500.00, which is the amount she was paid on December 1, 2018. Presumably this spreadsheet was intended to show that Rep. Tlaib was deferring monies from each salary payment she received and opted to collect them at a later date; however, the OCE could not confirm this given Rep. Tlaib and her staff’s refusal to interview. The OCE is not including the document in this report at the request of Rep. Tlaib’s counsel. The OCE notes that the spreadsheet was prepared by Soh Suzuki at the request of counsel after Rep. Tlaib began receiving inquiries about the legality of her salary payments. Additionally, the OCE notes that the deferrals referenced in the document appear inconsistent with the manner in which the salary payments are discussed in documents and communications created during the time periods in which the salary payments were actually made to Rep. Tlaib. Accordingly, the OCE discounts the veracity of this document.

<sup>44</sup> The Board notes that Rep. Tlaib failed to disclose $4,000.00 in salary payments from her campaign committee on her 2018 Candidate Financial Disclosure Reports, initially filed May 16, 2018, and then refiled as an amendment on December 7, 2018. See United States House of Representatives Financial Disclosure Statement for Rep. Rashida Tlaib (filed May 16, 2018) (omitting reference to a $2,000.00 May 7, 2018 salary payment and a $2,000.00 May 16, 2018 salary payment from Rashida Tlaib for Congress); United States House of Representatives Financial Disclosure Statement for Rep. Rashida Tlaib (filed Dec. 7, 2018) (same). Additionally, the Board notes that documents provided to the OCE by Rep. Tlaib suggest that she was paid by the campaign for work performed prior

III. CONCLUSION

36. Based on the foregoing information, the Board finds that there is substantial reason to believe that Rep. Tlaib converted campaign funds from Rashida Tlaib for Congress to personal use or Rep. Tlaib's campaign committee expended funds that were not attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes.
37. Accordingly, the Board recommends that the Committee further review the above allegation that Rep. Tlaib converted campaign funds from Rashida Tlaib for Congress to personal use or Rep. Tlaib's campaign committee expended funds that were not attributable to bona fide campaign or political purposes.

IV. INFORMATION THE OCE WAS UNABLE TO OBTAIN AND RECOMMENDATION FOR THE ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENAS

38. The following witnesses, by declining to provide requested information to the OCE, did not cooperate with the OCE review:
- a. Rep. Tlaib;
  - b. Soh Suzuki;
  - c. Andy Goddeeris; and
  - d. Amanda Kaye.
39. The Board recommends that the Committee on Ethics issue subpoenas to:
- a. Rep. Tlaib;
  - b. Soh Suzuki;
  - c. Andy Goddeeris; and
  - d. Amanda Kaye.

to the filing deadline for access to the primary election ballot in Michigan – April 24, 2018. See Michigan Secretary of State, 2018 Filing Requirements for Federal and State Elective Office, https://www.michigan.gov/documents/sos/2018\_Dates\_600221\_7.pdf (last visited July 16, 2019) (identifying April 24, 2018 as the filing deadline for access to the primary election ballot in Michigan). Specifically, Rep. Tlaib appears to have been paid $2,000.00 on May 16, 2018 for work performed between April 16, 2018 and April 30, 2018; she also received $2,000.00 on May 7, 2018 for work that appears to have been performed prior to April 16, 2018. See e.g., Campaign Salary Spreadsheet (Exhibit 9 at 19-4114_0030); Checks Payable to Rep. Tlaib from Rashida Tlaib for Congress (Exhibit 10 at 19-4114_0037-0038); Email string “Field Paychecks” (Exhibit 13 at 19-4114_0058-0063); Email string “3 Questions” (Exhibit 14 at 19-4114_0065-0068). The FEC has not authoritatively addressed whether payments made to a candidate after the primary filing deadline, but for work performed prior to that date, are permissible. Accordingly, the OCE notes the existence of these payments, but declines to make a finding on whether there is substantial reason to believe they violate federal law and House rules.

Look, there are two options. The choice should be made by you, Rashida, I feel very uncomfortable telling you what you can and can't do with regards to money.

Rashida can legally collect a salary of ~$7900 a month from the campaign (she can collect no more than her income from the previous year from the campaign committee). It subjects her to some additional reporting requirements if the FEC asks, but it is clearly legal. The downside is that in mid-July, it will become public that Rashida has collected X number of dollars from the campaign, and there might be attacks that follow that accuse Rashida of using her campaign funds to enrich herself. There will be a very good response to this: I quit my job when nobody else did, and I don't have a cushy government job to fall back on if I don't win - I'm all in for this race and for the people of the district. Personally, I believe this to be a very good response. I also think that people are especially sensitive to how money is handled. With all the financial bullshit the other campaigns are pulling, though, I think you would be pretty insulated from attack.

The other option is for Rashida to go back to working part-time at Sugar Law. This means blocking off 9a-12p every day, which would significantly impact campaign activities (fewer doors knocked, less money raised). But, it would provide Rashida with a steady income and not implicate campaign funds.

Steve and Andrew,

I am struggling financially right now. Fayez doesn't pay child support (my fault for not pushing him) and Shane is not helping as much as I had hoped. Sugar Law Center is going to compile all my vacation and sick days to give me another full pay check, but I am sinking.

I budgeted myself, but I think I underestimated having to handle rent and mortgage. The house finally got clearance to rent from the city. We had a ton of interest last month but I didn't want to risk the attacks by proceeding without clearance.

So I was thinking the campaign could loan me money, but Ryan said that the committee could actually pay me. I was thinking a one time payment of 5k. I can always borrow from the brothers, but wanted to ask you both first.

I'd want to talk through with Brewer first, but we need you at full strength, and you're not at full strength if you're having to worry about your finances. If it's legally permissible I want to do what's necessary so that this campaign doesn't dig you a hole you're struggling to get out of.

Hello all,

I am just not going to make it through the campaign without a stipend. With the loss of a second income to lean back on, I am requesting $2,000 per two weeks but not exceeding $12,000. The cost of living stipend is going towards much needed expenses due to campaigning that includes car maintenance, child care and other necessities.

Please let me know if I can proceed.

Thank you, Rashida

Well, I'll be damned - it turns out that a salary is, in fact, permissible under very limited circumstances.

- First, the candidate cannot be an incumbent federal officeholder - which explains why I hadn't dealt with it - Mark was in office when I worked for him.
- The salary must be less than both the Congressional monthly salary ($14,500/month), and also less than what Rashida made in earned income in the previous year. So if Rashida made $48,000 last year in earned income, her salary could be no more than $4,000 per month.
- Any other money that Rashida makes in earned income this year counts against the $14,500/month limit (but, by my reading of the statute, does not count against the earned income limit, if that is lower than $14,500)
- At the request of the FEC, Rashida would have to provide income tax records and proof of earnings to prove that the salary doesn't exceed her earned income from previous years.
- Payments may begin after the filing deadline for the office. If Rashida wins the primary election, payments can continue until the date of the general election; if for some reason she loses the primary, withdraws, or is otherwise not a candidate, payments must stop at that point.

By my "avid-fan-of-the-law-but-not-actually-a-lawyer" reading, it's not entirely clear whether payments can cover the period prior to the filing deadline (i.e. can the campaign pay Rashida today for the entire month of April?). It might be prudent to avoid paying for any time prior to the filing deadline, just to be safe.

My suggestion would be to handle it by bringing her on as an employee, taking payroll taxes out, etc. - rather than paying her a flat stipend and 1099ing her. But this type of payment, although legal and perfectly ethical, will be noticeable, and it would not surprise me to see someone write a news article about it when it becomes public at the filing deadline on July 15.

Related documents:

- FEC Candidate Guide (PDF) - check pages 53-57 (using the page numbers at the bottom of each page). In particular, the section on pages 53-54 entitled "Candidate Salary".
- 11 CFR 113.1, the specific law that pertains to personal use. The definition of salary is listed under 113.1(g)(1)(i)(I)
- When reading through this text, there is a spot in the candidate guide that might catch your eye, because it implies that salary can begin from the moment that a special election is called. However, after digging into 113.1, I found that this only applies to specials called in odd-numbered years; you would appear to be subject to the limits for normal elections.

Sorry for the early text but do you think the campaign can still pay me a stipend until the general. Trying to get out of debt.

I think if you're going to take a salary from the campaign, which I think you should, you should think very hard about whether you need to be working part time at Sugar, because if you didn't like the media's reaction to you taking a

December 1st checks

To: Rashida Tlaib [REDACTED] >, Ryan Anderson [REDACTED] >, Andy Goddeeris [REDACTED], Amanda Kaye [REDACTED] >, Amira Deebah [REDACTED], "Arbulu Jr, Oscar Demetrio" [REDACTED]

Hello,

I wanted to share with you that the December 1st checks will be covering for the time period through December 31, 2018.

For most of us, the pay period covered would be from Nov. 16, 2018 to December 31, 2018. So, the amount reflected on the check will be triple the usual bi-monthly amount.

Given that December 1st will fall on a Saturday, I will be issuing the checks and leave them in the office - in individual envelopes attached to a basket where I generally get my receipts (by the office door). Please let me know if you would rather have it left at another location.

Thank you!

Staff pay for 12/1/2018

Soh Suzuki [REDACTED]
To: Ryan Anderson [REDACTED]

Wed, Nov 21, 2018 at 10:36 AM

Hi Ryan,

Attached is the list of staff with projected amounts to be paid on 12/1/2018.

There's about $136,000 in the bank account.

Approximately, $66,000 more is to be spent before Dec. 31. Out of which, appx $45,000 for the staff.

With bonus and adjsuted payments, another $23,000 will be spent.

It should leave around $47,000 in the bank account - the figure excludes any expected contributions.

Hey Soh! A quick thing, our field organizer Lama Ajrouche did not work from april 23-may 6 so should not get the weekly pay for those two weeks. Sorry I'm sending this so late, shoulda sent sooner.

Also will field get paychecks for april 16-30? We have our field mtg on mondays so easiest time to give it to them. They'll also be back tmrw for phones so could give then too. Thx!!

Thank you, Mahima.

Would it be okay for the team to wait for the check until tomorrow? I just wanted to confirm the details today and have them cut tonight for tomorrow.

Amanda - will you be in the office this morning? If so, can I check in with you on the details? If not, I may give you a call.

Thank you!

Hey Soh! A quick thing, our field organizer Lama Ajrouche did not work from april 23-may 6 so should not get the weekly pay for those two weeks. Sorry I'm sending this so late, shoulda sent sooner.

Also will field get paychecks for april 16-30? We have our field mtg on mondays so easiest time to give it to them. They'll also be back tmrw for phones so could give then too. Thx!!

Hi Soh.

I was not planning to come in today. Each field organizer is paid $400/week. This period's check covers April 16-30. If you consult the past checks, NGP and/or the salary doc, you can see the names. Hope this helps.

Thank you, Mahima.

Would it be okay for the team to wait for the check until tomorrow? I just wanted to confirm the details today and have them cut tonight for tomorrow.

Amanda - will you be in the office this morning? If so, can I check in with you on the details? If not, I may give you a call.

Thank you!

Hi Amanda,

Here are the names and the amount for each staff that I could figure out. Please let me know if anything is off.

Also, I'm assuming Ryan submits an invoice based on the past pay.

Andrew - $5125
Steve (New Solutions) - $2500
Mahima - $4000
Amanda - $1250
Jonathan - $800
Lisa - $800
Lama - $400 (week off; another week off for the next pay)
Ali - $800
Alan - $800
Oscar - $800
Amira - $1750 (for 5/1-5/15)
Brie - (will submit time card)
Rashida - $2000
Monica - next period
Soh - next period
Ryan??

Please let me know if I have the figures off.

I would just get the field team their checks today and do the rest on the actual day. I am not being paid. You'll need time sheets from Ryan and Brie.

Hi Amanda,
I have three questions...

- How is payment to Rashida scheduled? I think there was one-time payment of $2,000 to her.
- How is phone bills paid? I see it is scheduled to be paid tomorrow... I just didn't see any info for it.
- In the bank transactions, I see "ACH/BANKCARD MERCH DEP". Are there any other entities other than NGP VAN that has the campaigns routing numbers to make transactions?
  - There is one transaction for a withdrawal of $2,500 on 5/11/18... it just didn't seem to match other financial activities of NGP VAN that I could see. The Credit Union couldn't tell me any more than what I can see on the on-line transactions.

Thank you!!

Rashida should be paid on the same schedule as everyone else. So the first $2k would be attributed to the previous pay period.

I'll pay the phone bill online unless you prefer to do it. I already have it set up.

$2,500 was a refund to donor who was inadvertently set up for recurring contributions. I can't remember his name but he's from CA, but if emailed you about him earlier. I shut off auto pay for him

Thank you.

I'll process the payment for Rashida. I think everyone else is caught up, except for Brie and Ryan (waiting on the invoice/hours).

Yes - you did share with me about the re-payment. I didn't think about it. Okay - that makes sense.

Thank you!!
