Thanks for including me, Jeremy. I am available for the call tomorrow.

I have a text into my cousin (nurse practitioner) about it. She is camping this weekend without service so I'm not sure when I will hear back. She will likely be worried about the tv part and how her practice would feel about her doing it. Do you guys already have the scripts for what they'd be saying?

I have some thoughts on the others but we can discuss tomorrow.
Thanks!
Dawn

Dick:
Thank you for the email and thoughts..it is very helpfull

Team:

The most important item right now is the testimonials. I've attached a list of people we can approach and who the most appropriate person on staff to contact them may be. I would like to loop in Sheila on this project along with Dawn as she will have some good ideas on who else we can contact. I would like our entire list to look like the doc section, we've identified 7 solid doctors we can approach but are very light on nurses and I have no ideas for students. My experience in the past is that we need a deep bench for a variety of reasons--mainly some people are busy or are afraid to go on TV. Then we have the challenge that certain people are better than others when on TV.

So lets spend the weekend, adding people to the list. Then on Monday at 9:00 AM PDT, I would like to have a call on how we can divide the list and start making the calls too. Plus I want us to all be on message on what our ask is of each individual and Stan if possible would like to give them a time when we will be doing the testimonials as well so everyone can plan accordingly.

so to recap, recruiting people for testimonials will be our top priority Monday, after we get this we can then focus on locations, extras and other items. Thank you all for your help!!
Jeremy

Thank you, Congresswoman.

Kristina, here's 2 more. It would be ideal if we could get a veteran to send the first one and someone who attended CMR's townhall (was one of our old interns there?) to send the second one. I'll keep working on some others.

5) As a veteran, I was startled by Daryl Romeyn's comment during Tuesday's debate that if he had the chance to serve in Congress, he would "listen to the arguments" for closing down Fairchild Air Force Base. This is a deeply irresponsible statement which shows that Daryl simply isn't ready for prime-time. Should Fairchild ever be threatened with being closed down, the mission of our Representative would be work tooth and nail to prevent that from happening; it certainly wouldn't be to "listen to the arguments." There are no good arguments for closing down Fairchild, and suggesting there might be sends the wrong message to Pentagon leaders and the brave servicemen and women at Fairchild and their families who rely on their Member of Congress to fight on their behalf. Thankfully, we already have a Congresswoman who does that: Cathy McMorris Rodgers. She has been Fairchild's best friend in the halls of Congress, and so long as she continues to serve there, I know that Fairchild will remain safe.

6) On Tuesday night, I was flipping back and forth between the baseball game and the debate between Cathy McMorris Rodgers and Daryl Romeyn. I had to stop and focus on the debate, however, when I heard Daryl tell the Congresswoman, "You didn't attend one public function in this election cycle until tonight." Actually, I saw Daryl and Cathy together at a town hall in August. And here's the kicker: It was the Congresswoman's town hall. She's the one who hosted and organized it. Did Daryl Romeyn blatantly lie to voters or does he simply not know what he's talking about? Either answer should disqualify him from serving in Congress.

Subject: LTEs

Kristina's, here's some LTEs I've drafted...will send some more in a little bit...

1) During Tuesday's debate, Cathy McMorris Rodgers showed why she's such an outstanding leader for Eastern Washington and one of the rising stars in national politics. At a time when politicians in both parties pander to voters, Cathy made an effective case for – in her words – “smaller, smarter government, living within our means, and unleashing the power of free people and free markets” – and she has the voting record to back it up – voting against the Wall Street bailout, the $800 billion stimulus bill, and the government takeover of health care. If the Republicans take over Congress next year, Cathy will play a pivotal role in getting our economy moving again and putting our fiscal house in order.

2) I was very disappointed in Daryl Romeyn's performance in Tuesday's debate. While he made a few decent points, overall, I saw the same negativity and mean-spiritedness that we see from most politicians – but not Cathy McMorris Rodgers. “What have you done?” Darlyn repeatedly asked Cathy. Well, Cathy has done a lot for things which directly affect Eastern Washington – protecting Fairchild, helping veterans, safeguarding our forests, etc. When it comes to the big national issues – the economy, the deficit, immigration, etc – Cathy's power is limited because the Democrats have controlled Congress for the past four years. The reason things have gone backwards on those issues is because of Daryl's party, and if we want to see real progress, we need to re-elect Cathy and voters everywhere need to elect a Republican Congress. If Daryl is sincere in his desire for change, maybe he should vote for Cathy McMorris Rodgers.

3) If Daryl Romeyn wants voters to take him seriously, his performance in Tuesday's debate didn't help. Basically, his entire message was: Cathy McMorris Rodgers is responsible for everything that's wrong with America, and it's a shame she hasn't solved every single problem during her six years in office. Basically, if a dog is drinking out of the toilet somewhere in America, it's Cathy's fault. Does Daryl Romeyn know who the President is? Does he know which party has controlled Congress the past four years? As Daryl would say, “Look at the facts.” Somebody has to, because Daryl sure hasn't. Eastern Washington has a jewel in Cathy McMorris Rodgers, and we need to re-elect her.

4) What a contrast in Tuesday's debate for Congress! On one side was Darlyn Romeyn, a man with literally no political experience, promising more of the same – more taxes, more spending, and more government control over our lives – and yet strangely acting like he's the voice of change. On the other side was Cathy McMorris Rodgers – an experienced, knowledgeable leader and the voice of real change – less taxes, less spending, and fiscal accountability. I saw ignorance and anger from Daryl Romeyn; I saw poise and optimism from Cathy McMorris Rodgers. I know who I'll be voting for on November 2.

McMorris Rodgers Has Earned My Vote

I was disappointed to read that our valley's paper of record backed a well-meaning, but otherwise unexceptional Democrat, over our experienced and influential incumbent, Congresswoman Cathy McMorris Rodgers.

The Union Bulletin endorsed a slate of other Republicans running both locally and statewide for office, along with our two-term U.S. Senator Maria Cantwell, a Democrat. Truly, if there was one newcomer that could bring change to Congress, it's not Rich Cowan -- it's Michael Baumgartner.

Contrary to the U-B's absurd editorial, our region has many reasons to be proud of and re-elect our Congresswoman Cathy McMorris Rodgers. For starters, she has risen to be the highest ranking Republican woman in Congress. But more importantly, even on the ascent, she's not been afraid to stand by her conservative principles.

Here locally, she has been actively engaged in veterans issues, rural health care, and fighting to rein in wasteful government spending. Furthermore, she is a leader on hydropower, and keeping our agriculture industry competitive (she grew up on a farm!).

She's well positioned to deliver results on the priorities of our region. Contrast that with our state's junior senator, who we hardly see on this side of the Cascades, and then only when there's a photo opportunity!

Congresswoman McMorris Rodgers is fighting for us every day she's on the job, and represents us well in Congress. While it might not be the U-B's best judgment, take it from this supporter, she deserves your vote this November.

Here is one, more to come.

McMorris Rodgers Delivers for Walla Walla

I have never written a letter to the editor before, but I felt compelled to voice my disappointment in the Union Bulletin after it did not endorse Congresswoman Cathy McMorris Rodgers.

Cathy has done a great job as our Representative in Congress. In May I saw her at the Starbucks downtown and then again in July at Pioneer Park at the Sesquicentennial Anniversary. Not only does she visit our area often, but she comes to listen to our concerns and takes action. Not too long ago our community was very concerned about Alaska Airlines cancelling its air service, but Cathy knows how important that service is to our economic growth and advocated to Alaska Airlines and helped secure the Small Community Air Service Development grant that is helping to preserve air service here in the Valley.

We are lucky to have Cathy because she is not afraid to stand by her principles and still is able to work with Democrats and Republicans to get the job done. As my Representative, I'm glad Cathy voted against the wasteful stimulus and is fighting the government takeover of healthcare. I'm also glad Cathy stands up for our veterans and is working to improve rural healthcare, expand hydropower, and pass a strong farm bill. These are the issues important to Walla Walla.

There is an old saying, "don't tell me what you believe, show me what you do, and I'll tell you what you believe." The Democrat running against Cathy may talk a good talk, but Cathy walks the walk. Walla Walla has always supported actions not rhetoric. That is why I support Representative Cathy McMorris Rodgers, because she delivers on the issues that are important to Walla Walla.

Hi Todd,

Are we still on for Friday? I can't be there in person on Monday, but could be on the phone from 10-11:45 am. But I'd like to do a debate 101 session on Friday if that will work or did you have something else in mind for Friday?

Hi Brett. Hope things are well. Just wanted to let you know we've blocked off Monday, Sep 24 from 10am-1 pm for CMR's debate prep. Would you be able to join us for that? Thanks. -Todd

Hi Kristina,

Per your email (and my discussion with Jeremy), we will continue to have myself as the direct contact for campaign-related press calls (while keeping in mind the restrictions imposed by the Ethics Committee, which are explained below). With that in mind, please note that my personal email address is [REDACTED]@hotmail.com and my cell phone is [REDACTED]. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to ask.

Thanks,

Subject: clarification from ethics on press stuff

I spoke to Peg at the Ethics Committee and this is what she said...

*Official staff can't take reporter calls if the focus of the call is the campaign; those calls must be referred to the campaign office.

*However, if the reporter calls about a legislative/official issue, and during the course of the call, he asks a campaign-related question, like "How are things looking with the campaign" that should be fine to answer.

*However, official staff are allowed to speak to the press outside of work hours and without using official resources (i.e., they should use their own cell phones in the evenings).

Bottom line is: I think we can still do a lot of things we want to do, but we need to follow some of these cumbersome rules to make sure we're straight with the law (because obviously our opponents may try to trip us up; I know I would if I were them).

Let me know if you have any further questions.

Thanks,
Todd

I didn't ask, but I'm assuming the pregnancy announcement. I'll make sure to get specifics next time. So for official business it's you - for campaign to whom do I direct him to? Sorry for the back and forth, but when I worked for CMR before the press secretary handled both campaign/official questions.

Thanks!

The only thing you have to be careful about is if the information you are sending is focused on fundraising accomplishments or goals. If the information is focused on legislative accomplishments, etc then there is no problem. I actually talked to George at Hse Admin and he had a note to touch base with you (so I told him I would take care of that for him). Let me know if you have any other questions. Thanks.

I can't make a call on the package (bc my opinion is not the one we need - and bc it is hard for me to get an accurate perspective of the official to campaign ratio of the package by reading it on my bb. I am happy to go into the office this afternoon and look at it on my computer - but would want to consult George at Hse Admin. My advice would be - bc they want to keep it confidential and I can't share it - that Jeremy call George at House Admin and find out if in his opinion it crosses the line.

Let me know if I can be more helpful though.

Per our huddle yesterday by phone, we want to nix:

Is there anyone else in this sheet who should NOT get a packet? If so, who?

Packets should be ready by 3:00PM at Kinkos.

I'd like to have the plain manilla envelopes labeled, stamped "Member Attention" and ready to stuff by then.

Thanks,

Team:

Attached are the three groups we need to email tomorrow:

- 1) Incumbents, Non-Freshmen (Packet attached)
- 2) Freshmen (Packet attached, P.S. with video)
- 3) Candidates (Packet attached, P.S. with video)

If someone wants to double-check the data, open the sheet and look for the column "BEST EMAIL TO USE FOR PACKET."

NOTES/QUESTIONS:

- 1) We are missing 20 or so personal/political email addresses for incumbents; we can substitute their Chief's non-federal email (?)
- 2) We will have to send these BCC in batches of 20-50, CMR's [REDACTED]@yahoo.com account is finicky about big lists.
- 3) Do we want Price and 5s to get the email? We can cull them out if not.
- 4) In some cases, we had more than one personal/political email address -- so we'll have some bounces & Members getting it in two inboxes.
- 5) We'll need to cull out incumbents, freshmen, and candidates that don't make it.

Anything else?

Hi Jeremy:
Thanks for lunch today. Hope you were able to finish the training you needed to get done.

Just wanted to confirm this was the package we discussed:.

$80,000 annual salary
$5,000 2011 EOY bonus
Extra week's vacation
Title/reporting change
Quarterly travel to the district
$10,000 victory bonus

I'm talking with Resa again tonight, but just wanted to let you know I think this is an exceptionally generous package -- and I'm very close to a decision.

Best,
Patrick
