U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

IN THE MATTER OF ALLEGATIONS RELATING TO REPRESENTATIVE JUDY CHU

JULY 20, 2022

Mr. Deutch from the Committee on Ethics submitted the following

R E P O R T

In accordance with Rule 18(e)(2) of the Committee on Ethics (Committee), the Committee hereby submits the following Report to the House of Representatives:

I. FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS

On July 20, 2022, the Committee convened for the purpose of considering the June 30, 2022, arrest of Representative Judy Chu, for Crowding, Obstructing, or Incommoding, during a protest outside the Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. Representative Chu was released following her arrest. Representative Chu informed the Committee she intends to pay a $50 fine related to her arrest. The legal proceedings related to her arrest are expected to be resolved with no further action.

The Committee voted against impanelling an investigative subcommittee in this matter. The Committee considered the scope and nature of the conduct described above and determined that review by an investigative subcommittee is not required in this matter.

The Committee has determined to take no further action in this matter, and upon publication of this Report, considers the matter closed.

II. STATEMENT UNDER HOUSE RULE XIII, CLAUSE 3(C)

The Committee made no special oversight findings in this Report. No budget statement is submitted. No funding is authorized by any measure in this Report.
