FINDINGS OF FACT AND CITATIONS TO LAW

Review No. 12-0516

On August 24, 2012, the Board of the Office of Congressional Ethics (“OCE Board”) adopted the following findings of fact and accompanying citations to law, regulations, rules, and standards of conduct (in italics).

The Board notes that these findings do not constitute a determination that a violation actually occurred.

I. INTRODUCTION

A. Summary of Allegations

1. Representative Silvestre Reyes may have held campaign meetings on House property. If Representative Reyes solicited or received campaign funds or held meetings that were political in nature while on House property, he may have violated House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law. Representative Reyes’s campaign committee may have improperly used campaign funds to pay for certain expenses related to his daughter’s residence. If Representative Reyes used campaign funds for personal use, he may have violated House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law.
2. Representative Reyes refused to cooperate with the OCE’s review. Thus, under Rule 6 of the OCE’s Rules for the Conduct of Investigations, the Board draws a negative inference from that refusal to cooperate. The OCE infers that the information Representative Reyes refused to provide, taken together with the factual findings in this referral, supports the conclusion that there is a substantial reason to believe that a violation of House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law occurred.
3. The OCE Board recommends that the Committee on Ethics further review the above allegation concerning whether Representative Reyes solicited or received campaign funds or held meetings that were political in nature while on House property because there is a substantial reason to believe that a violation of House rules, standards of conduct, or federal law occurred.
4. The OCE Board recommends that the Committee on Ethics further review the above allegation concerning whether Representative Reyes improperly used campaign funds to pay for certain expenses related to his daughter’s residence because there is a substantial reason to believe that a violation of House rules, standards of conduct, or federal law occurred.

B. Jurisdictional Statement

5. The allegations that were the subject of this review concern Representative Reyes, a Member of the United States House of Representatives from the 16th District of Texas. The Resolution the United States House of Representatives adopted creating the OCE directs that, “[n]o review shall be undertaken . . . by the board of any alleged violation that occurred before the date of adoption of this resolution.”¹ The House adopted this Resolution on March 11, 2008. Because the alleged conduct in this review took place after March 11, 2008, the OCE has jurisdiction in this matter.

C. Procedural History

6. The OCE received a written request for a preliminary review in this matter signed by at least two members of the OCE Board on May 23, 2012. The preliminary review commenced on May 24, 2012.² The preliminary review was scheduled to end on June 22, 2012.
7. At least three members of the OCE Board voted to initiate a second-phase review in this matter on June 22, 2012. The second-phase review commenced on June 23, 2012.³ The second-phase review was scheduled to end on August 6, 2012.
8. The OCE Board voted to extend second-phase review for an additional period of fourteen days on July 27, 2012. The additional period was scheduled to end on August 20, 2012.
9. The OCE Board voted to refer the matter to the Committee on Ethics and adopted these findings on August 24, 2012.
10. The report and findings in this matter were transmitted to the Committee on Ethics on August 30, 2012.

D. Summary of Investigative Activity

11. The OCE requested testimonial and documentary evidence from the following sources:

(1) Representative Reyes.

² A preliminary review is “requested” in writing by members of the Board of the OCE. The request for a preliminary review is “received” by the OCE on a date certain. According to the Resolution, the timeframe for conducting a preliminary review is thirty days from the date of receipt of the Board’s request.

³ According to the Resolution, the Board must vote on whether to conduct a second-phase review in a matter before the expiration of the thirty-day preliminary review. If the Board votes for a second-phase, the second-phase begins when the preliminary review ends. The second-phase review does not begin on the date of the Board vote.

Subject to the Nondisclosure Provisions of H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress as Amended

12. Representative Reyes refused to provide the OCE with any requested documents and also refused to make himself available for an interview with the OCE.

II. REPRESENTATIVE REYES’S CAMPAIGN MEETINGS IN THE HOUSE MEMBERS’ DINING ROOM

A. Laws, Regulations, Rules, and Standards of Conduct

13. The House Ethics Manual states that “as a general rule, [House buildings, rooms and offices] may not be used for the conduct of campaign or political activities . . . In addition, House rooms and offices are not to be used for events that are campaign or political in nature, such as a meeting on campaign strategy, or a reception for campaign contributors.”⁴

14. 18 U.S.C. § 607 states that “[i]t shall be unlawful for an individual who is an officer or employee of the Federal Government, including the President, Vice President, and Members of Congress, to solicit or receive a donation of money or other thing of value in connection with a Federal, State, or local election, while in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by an officer or employee of the United States, from any person.”

B. Representative Reyes's FEC Disclosure Forms Show Multiple Entries Designated as "Campaign Meeting" Expenses in the House Members' Dining Room

15. According to his 2011 Federal Election Commission disclosure forms, Representative Reyes used $469.71 in campaign funds for five "campaign meetings"⁵ in the House Members' Dining Room, located in the United States Capitol Building.⁶

16. As shown above, the memo line created by Representative Reyes’s own campaign committee disclosed “campaign meetings” on federal property in five separate instances. Because Representative Reyes refused to provide the OCE with information regarding these meetings, the OCE must rely on the facts as they appear in the public record. Based on these facts, there is a substantial reason to believe that Representative Reyes engaged in campaign or political activities in a House room.⁷

17. Further, Representative Reyes refused to cooperate with the OCE’s review. Thus, under Rule 6 of the OCE’s Rules for the Conduct of Investigations, the Board draws a negative inference from that refusal to cooperate. The OCE infers that the information Representative Reyes refused to provide, taken together with the factual findings in this referral, supports the conclusion that there is a substantial reason to believe that a violation of House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law occurred during these meetings in the Members’ Dining Room.

⁷ Representative Reyes’s attorney submitted three, three-page letters to the OCE in response to requests for information arguing that “the person coding the expenditures for the meals in the Members’ Dining Room mistakenly had coded the meals as campaign related. The meals should have been coded as officially connected. None of the meals involved campaign staff or were related to campaign business.” The OCE Board does not consider Representative Reyes’s attorney’s representations in this matter as evidence under H. Res. 895 of the 110th Congress §1(c)(2)(D) (as amended) and OCE Rule 4.

III. REPRESENTATIVE REYES'S USE OF HIS DAUGHTER'S RESIDENCE FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES

A. Laws, Regulations, Rules, and Standards of Conduct

18. *The House Ethics Manual states that “[w]henever a Member’s campaign is considering entering into a transaction with either the Member or one of his or her family members, it is advisable for the Member to seek a written advisory opinion on the transaction from the Standards Committee. If a Member’s campaign does enter into such a transaction with the Member or a member of his or her family, the campaign’s records must include information that establishes both the campaign’s need for and actual use of the particular goods, services or space, and the efforts made to establish fair market value for the transaction.”*⁸
19. 2 U.S.C. § 439a(b)(1) states that “[a] contribution or donation . . . shall not be converted by any person to personal use.”
20. *11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(i)(E) defines “[m]ortgage, rent, or utility payments for any part of any personal residence of the candidate or a member of the candidate’s family” as personal use.*⁹
21. House Rule 23, clause 6(b) states that “a Member may not convert campaign funds to personal use in excess of an amount representing reimbursement for legitimate and verifiable campaign expenditures.”

⁸ House Ethics Manual 170 (2008).

⁹ Several FEC Advisory Opinions and Commission Explanation and Justification statements provide further context in interpreting the personal use prohibition concerning rental and utility payments. The FEC has opined that 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(i)(E) “prohibits payments for use of a personal residence because the expenses of maintaining a personal residence would exist irrespective of the candidacy of the Federal officeholder’s duties.” 60 Fed. Reg 7862, 7865 (February 9, 1995). See FEC Advisory Opinion 2000-02; Advisory Opinion 1995-08 (“[11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(i)(E)] permits the use of campaign funds for rental property owned by the candidate (but not occupied as a residence) or a family member, where the property is rented for campaign purposes and is not part of a personal residence of either the candidate or a family member”). Therefore, if the property owned by the candidate or family member is a “personal residence” of the candidate or family member, 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(i)(E) may prohibit payments from the campaign committee for expenses related to that property. Further, although in Advisory Opinion 2011-05, the FEC opined that a campaign may make expenditures for upgrades to a home security system, those facts are distinguishable from this matter in that those upgrades were required as a result of security threats and unlike a decision to make voluntary upgrades unrelated to the personal safety of the Member or their family. It was further noted by the FEC that the security upgrades did not appear on the personal use prohibition “list” (11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(i)(A)-(J)). In the case of residences owned by a candidate or a family member, mortgage, rent, and utility payments are articulated under 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(i)(E); thus, advisory opinions 2000-02 and 1995-08 apply to personal residence expenditures like the ones in this matter.

B. Representative Reyes Used Campaign Funds to Pay For Utilities at His Daughter's Residence

- 22. From 2008 to 2012, Representative Reyes's campaign committee paid approximately $13,000 in expenses relating to his daughter's Washington, DC residence, where Representative Reyes appears to have operated a campaign office.¹⁰
- 23. As shown in the examples below, these expenses included pest control, internet, telephone, cable, and electricity services, among other expenses.¹¹

¹⁰ See OCE Summary of Expenditures Related to Daughter's Residence (Exhibit 2 at 12-0516_0008). Because Representative Reyes refused to cooperate with the OCE's review, the OCE could not establish, through Representative Reyes himself, whether the "DC Office" was owned by his daughter. However, in addition to Representative Reyes publicly acknowledging it, Representative Reyes's attorney submitted three, three-page letters to the OCE in response to requests for information, representing that "the Reyes Committee operated a campaign office out of a residence owned by . . . Congressman Reyes's daughter." The attorney also went on to represent that "[t]hroughout the campaign, the need for certain non-rent expenditures arose; these expenses would not have arisen but for the campaign and were ordinary and necessary campaign expenses" and that "[t]he campaign, for example, paid to install shelving to house its records. It also paid an outside vendor to rid the area of pests in order to protect his records and make the space usable as a campaign office."

- 25. Because Representative Reyes refused to provide the OCE with information regarding his daughter’s Washington, DC residence and his campaign committee’s expenses associated with it, the OCE must rely on the facts as they appear in the public record. Based on these facts, there is a substantial reason to believe that Representative Reyes operated a campaign office out of a residence owned by his daughter, using campaign funds for utilities and improvements to the property, in violation of House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law.
- 26. Further, Representative Reyes refused to cooperate with the OCE’s review. Thus, under Rule 6 of the OCE’s Rules for the Conduct of Investigations, the Board draws a negative inference from that refusal to cooperate. The OCE infers that the information Representative Reyes refused to provide, taken together with the factual findings in this referral, supports the conclusion that there is a substantial reason to believe that a violation of House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law occurred by the campaign expenditures described above.

IV. CONCLUSION

- 27. Based on the factual findings in this review, the OCE Board recommends that the Committee on Ethics further review the above allegations concerning Representative Reyes because there is a substantial reason to believe that violations of House rules, standards of conduct, and federal law occurred.

V. INFORMATION THE OCE WAS UNABLE TO OBTAIN AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE ISSUANCE OF SUBPOENAS

- 28. Representative Reyes refused to cooperate with the OCE’s review.
- 29. The OCE Board recommends that the Committee on Ethics issue a subpoena to Representative Reyes.
