MEMORANDUM FOR ALL MEMBERS, OFFICERS, AND EMPLOYEES

FROM: Committee on Ethics

Theodore E. Deutch, Chairman

Kenny E. Marchant, Ranking Member

SUBJECT: The 2019 Outside Earned Income Limit and Salaries Triggering the Financial Disclosure Requirement and Post-Employment Restrictions Applicable to House Officers and Employees

All Members of the House are subject to certain public disclosure requirements and employment restrictions both during and after their service in the House, including:

1. Financial disclosure filing requirements, including both annual financial disclosure (FD) statements and Periodic Transaction Reports (PTRs);
2. Restrictions on outside employment;
3. Notification requirements for disclosure of negotiations for private employment and related recusals; and
4. Post-employment restrictions.

House employees may also be subject to these requirements and restrictions, depending on their salary level. This memorandum provides details on the current triggering salary figures for Calendar Year (CY) 2019 for each of the categories noted above, and summarizes them in a table on page 5 of this Memorandum. It is each individual employee's responsibility to know whether their salary level subjects them to these standards of conduct and, if so, to comply with them. Please note that this memorandum is not a comprehensive list of every rule or standard of conduct that applies to House staff, but an overview of key standards that are triggered by salary level. Any Member, officer, or employee who has questions about whether their rate of pay triggers these requirements or restrictions or about the various rules is encouraged to contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

House officers and employees whose “rate of basic pay is equal to or greater than 120 percent of the minimum rate of basic pay payable for GS-15 of the General Schedule” for at least 60 days at any time during a calendar year are subject to financial disclosure filing requirements, provided that the officer or employee “performs the duties of his [or her] position or office for a period in excess of sixty days in that calendar year.”¹ The GS-15, step 1, basic pay rate for CY 2019 is $105,123.² The applicable 120% calculation for that rate is therefore $126,148, or a monthly salary above $10,512. This rate is referred to as the “senior staff rate.

As a result, House officers and employees whose basic rate of pay is equal to or greater than the senior staff rate ($126,148) for at least 60 days³ during 2019 must file an FD statement on or before May 15, 2020.⁴ (Temporary increases in an employee’s basic rate of pay – such as to pay out a bonus – count toward this threshold, but “lump sum” payments do not.⁵) In addition, any new employee paid at or above the senior staff rate must file a “new employee” FD statement within 30 days of assuming employment with the House.⁶ A new employee may request an extension of the new employee FD filing deadline of up to 90 days, but the request must be received by the Committee or on before the original filing deadline.⁷ Finally, any staff who are paid at or above the senior staff rate on January 3, 2019 (or their first day of employment, if later in the year) must file reports (PTRs) on an ongoing basis throughout the year regarding certain financial transactions.⁸ PTRs are not annual filings, but must be filed within 30 days of a purchase, sale, or exchange of more than $1,000 in stocks, bonds, and other securities.⁹

¹ Ethics in Government Act (EIGA) §§ 109(13) and 101(d), 5 U.S.C. app. §§ 109(13) and 101(d) (hereinafter all citations to the EIGA will be to the appropriate federal code citation). In addition, all House Members are subject to financial disclosure filing requirements. 5 U.S.C. app. §§ 101(d) and (f).

² Exec. Order No. 13,856, 84 Fed. Reg. 67 (Jan. 8, 2019). This amount is unchanged from 2018. In the event that this amount changes during 2019, the Committee will update its written guidance.

⁷ A request for an extension must be made using either a form available on the Committee’s web site or through the electronic financial disclosure filing system.

⁸ 5 U.S.C. app. § 103(f).

⁹ For detail on the PTR requirement, see the Committee’s August 17, 2012, advisory memorandum “Periodic Reporting of Personal Financial Transactions Pursuant to the STOCK Act, as amended,” which is available on the Committee website (<https://ethics.house.gov>), under the links for Reports/General Advisories. Note that the STOCK Act may require the filing of PTRs as often as once per month for Members and any staff who are

Please note that the requirement to file an FD statement covering calendar year 2018 applies to officers and employees whose basic rate of pay for at least 60 days in 2018 was $126,148 or more (a monthly salary at or above $10,512). Annual FD statements covering CY 2018 are due on Wednesday, May 15, 2019, for those individuals who continue to be Members, officers, or employees of the House on that date.¹⁰ A filer may request an extension of the annual FD filing deadline of up to 90 days, but the request must be received by the Committee or on before the original filing deadline.¹¹

In addition, House Members, officers, and employees paid at or above the senior staff rate for 60 days or more in a calendar year who terminate their House employment during that calendar year are required to file an FD statement within 30 days of their termination.¹² A filer may request an extension of the termination FD filing deadline of up to 90 days, but the request must be received by the Committee or on before the original filing deadline.¹³

THE OUTSIDE EARNED INCOME LIMIT AND OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT RESTRICTIONS

House officers and employees whose rate of basic pay is equal to or greater than the senior staff rate for more than 90 days are subject to limits on the amount of outside earned income¹⁴ attributable to each calendar year.¹⁵ As noted above, the senior staff rate for CY 2019 is $126,148, or a monthly salary above $10,512. The limit on outside earned income attributable to a calendar year is 15% of the rate of basic pay for Executive Schedule Level II in effect on January 1 of the year. As of January 1, 2019, the rate of basic pay for Executive Level II was $189,600.¹⁶ paid at the senior staff rate on the first day of the 2019 pay cycle (January 3, 2019). Staff who are paid at or above the senior staff rate for more than 60 days later in 2019 – even if on a temporary basis – will also be subject to the PTR requirement for the remainder of the calendar year and will be required to file an annual FD in 2020.

¹⁰ FD statements are due May 15 annually. In the event that May 15 or another filing deadline under the EIGA falls on a weekend or a holiday, the filing deadline shall be on the next business day.

¹¹ See supra note 7.

¹² See 5 U.S.C. app. § 101(e). The only exception is for filers who, within 30 days of their termination from the House, accept a position with the federal government that requires the filing of a publicly-available FD statement. Departing employees who are exempt from filing under these circumstances must notify the Clerk of the House of that fact in writing, by sending a letter, completing a form available for that purpose, or filing a notice through the electronic financial disclosure filing system.

¹³ See supra note 7.

¹⁴ The term “outside earned income” means any “wages, salaries, fees, and other amounts received or to be received as compensation for personal services actually rendered” by a House Member, officer, or employee. House Rule 25, cl. 4(d)(1). It does not include, among other things, the individual’s salary from the House, nor does it include income for services rendered before the individual was employed by the House. Id. at cls. 4(d)(1)(A), (B).

¹⁵ 5 U.S.C. app. § 501(a)(1); House Rule 25, cls. 1(a)(1) and 4(a)(1).

¹⁶ Exec. Order No. 13,856, 84 Fed. Reg. 70 (Jan. 8, 2019).

Accordingly, the outside earned income limit for House Members, officers, and employees paid at or above the senior staff rate for CY 2019 is $28,440.¹⁷

Members, officers, and House employees paid at or above the senior staff rate for more than 90 days are also subject to a number of specific limitations on the substantive types of outside employment for which they may receive compensation and must receive prior approval to receive certain types of compensation.¹⁸ These include prohibitions on receiving any compensation for practicing a profession that involves a fiduciary relationship, receiving any compensation for affiliating with a firm that provides professional services involving a fiduciary relationship, or permitting such a firm to use one's name.¹⁹ Receipt of compensation for service as an officer or member of a board of directors is also prohibited.²⁰ Prior written approval from the Committee on Ethics is required to accept compensation for teaching and to receive copyright royalties.²¹ Detailed information regarding these limitations may be found on pages 213 to 238 of the 2008 House Ethics Manual, which is available on the Committee's website (<https://ethics.house.gov>).

DISCLOSURE OF EMPLOYMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND RECUSALS

House Members, officers, and employees paid at the senior staff rate must notify the Committee within three (3) business days after they commence any negotiation or agreement for future employment with a private entity.²² In addition, House Members, officers, and senior staff must recuse themselves from "any matter in which there is a conflict of interest or an appearance of a conflict" with the private entity with which they are negotiating or have an agreement for future employment or compensation, and they must notify the Ethics Committee in writing of such recusal.²³ As noted above, the senior staff rate for CY 2019 is $126,148, or a monthly salary above $10,512.

Information on the disclosure and recusal requirements related to seeking private employment applicable to Members, officers, and senior staff is available in two Committee advisory memoranda, one for Members and officers and one for staff. Copies of both memoranda, which are dated January 2, 2019, are available on the Committee's website (<https://ethics.house.gov>) under "Reports/General Advisories," and forms for making the notifications regarding job negotiations or recusal are available under "Forms/Post-Employment."

¹⁷ This amount is proportionally reduced when an individual becomes a Member, officer, or senior employee during the calendar year. For example, an individual who is hired into a senior staff position on July 1 has an outside earned limit that is one-half of the full amount, or $14,025. The outside earned income limit for 2019 will not change even if the General Schedule changes later in 2019 because it is based on the amount as of January 1, 2019. See 5 U.S.C. app. § 501(a)(2); House Rule 25, cl. 1(b).

POST-EMPLOYMENT RESTRICTIONS

House Members and officers, as well as certain other House employees, are subject to post-employment restrictions on lobbying.²⁴ In general, a former employee of a Member, committee, or leadership office is subject to the restrictions if, for at least 60 days during the one-year period preceding termination of House employment, the employee was paid at a rate equal to or greater than 75% of the basic rate of pay for Members at the time of termination. This amount is referred to as the “very senior staff rate.”

The basic rate of pay for Members in 2019 will remain $174,000.²⁵ Therefore, the post-employment threshold for employees who depart from a job in a Member, committee, or leadership office in CY 2019 remains $130,500, or a monthly salary of $10,875 or more. However, the triggering salary for employees of other House offices (such as the Chaplain, Chief Administrative Officer, Clerk, General Counsel, Historian, Inspector General, Law Revision Counsel, Legislative Counsel, Office of Congressional Ethics, Parliamentarian, and Sergeant of Arms) is Executive Schedule Level IV.²⁶ For 2019, that salary is $164,200, or a monthly salary above $13,683.

Information on the post-employment restrictions applicable to Members, officers, and very senior staff is available in the two Committee advisory memoranda referenced in the previous section.²⁷

²⁵ See Section 212 of Title II of the Energy and Water, Legislative Branch, and Military Construction and Veterans Affairs Appropriations Act, 2019, Pub. L. No. 115-244 Sep. 21, 2018), prohibiting a scheduled cost-of-living pay raise for Members. As a result, Member pay will remain at $174,000 for 2019.
