MEMORANDUM FOR ALL MEMBERS, MEMBERS-ELECT, OFFICERS, AND EMPLOYEES

FROM: Committee on Ethics
Susan Wild, Acting Chairwoman
Michael Guest, Acting Ranking Member

SUBJECT: Member Swearing-in Events

This memorandum summarizes the ethics rules relating to the receptions that Members may wish to hold or attend in connection with their swearing-in.¹ The major rules that apply in these areas are briefly summarized below, and guidance on specific circumstances is available by calling the Committee at (202) 225-7103 or writing to the Committee at ethicscommittee@mail.house.gov.

Member Swearing-in Receptions. You may wish to host a reception or similar event for your constituents in connection with your swearing-in. You may use your principal campaign committee funds to pay the costs of such a reception, even if the reception is held in your office or another House room.² However, swearing-in events held in House rooms or district offices may not be campaign or political in nature. A swearing-in event would likely be campaign or political if, for example, the list of invitees were limited to only campaign contributors. The Committee understands the Members' Representational Allowance may not be used for receptions that are purely social activities or social events, including swearing-in receptions.³

You may not allow a lobbying firm or other private entity to pay the costs of a reception or other event hosted by you in connection with your swearing-in. Accepting private subsidy of your official events is an impermissible gift under the House Gift Rule.⁴ However, as discussed further below, a private entity may host its own event in your honor, subject to certain limitations.

² See Comm. on Ethics, House Ethics Manual 2022 Print at 127, 160. Even though these events are paid for with campaign funds, they are still official in nature. Therefore, no campaign activity, including soliciting for campaign donations, may occur during these events or on House grounds.

³ Please contact the Committee on House Administration for any additional questions about the use of official House funds.

Attendance at Privately-Sponsored Events. Acceptance of free attendance at swearing-in related events sponsored by private entities are subject to the House gift rule. Thus, a Member or staff person may accept such an offer only if acceptance is allowed under one of the provisions of the gift rule. Some examples of applicable gift rule exceptions include receptions, widely-attended events, and gifts worth less than $50. A private entity may also wish to host an event in your honor.

Reception

What It Is: A reception is often a collegial gathering. A reception may be organized for the purposes of networking or socializing and does not have to include programming related to your official duties. Your attendance may be personal or official.

Requirements of the Exception: The food offered is limited to appetizers, hors d'oeuvres, and drinks. The food offered does not include even low-cost items that could be considered a meal, such as a pizza or hot dog. The setting is other than one-on-one. The invitation may come from anyone.⁵

What You May Accept if Offered: Free attendance for yourself and one other person, appetizers, drinks, and informational materials.

Widely-Attended Event

What It Is: A widely-attended event is an event related to your official work where you speak on a topic related to your work for the House, you learn something related to your work, or where the event is otherwise related to your representational role. Large events, such as conferences, forums, and large fly-in dinners are often widely-attended events.

Requirements of the Exception: For this exception to apply, you must receive the invitation from the event organizer(s), and not from a financial sponsor. You must determine that attendance at the event is related to your official duties. The event organizer must expect at least 25 other attendees from a broad group of people other than Congressional attendees or the event organizer's own employees.⁶

⁴ House Rule 25, cl. 5.

⁵ House Rule 25, cl. 5(a)(3)(U).

⁶ Individuals who are officials of other branches or levels of government count toward the required minimum of 25, but spouses and others who accompany the congressional Members and staff do not count toward the required minimum. See House Rule 25, cl. 5(a)(4)(A); House Ethics Manual, Gifts Chapter, XI.J.ii, https://ethics.house.gov/house-ethics-manual/gifts#_Widely-Attended_Events.

What You May Accept from Event Organizer if Offered: Free attendance at the event for yourself and one other person; appetizers, drinks, and/or meals; local transportation;⁷ and informational materials.

Less than $50

What It Is: The less than $50 exception can be used as a catch-all exception to the gift rule, if another, more specific exception does not apply.

Requirements of the Exception: You may accept anything that is $49.99 or less in a single instance from a single donor. The entity offering the gift may not be a registered federal lobbyist, a foreign agent, or an organization that employs or retains lobbyists or foreign agents. This exception has a $99.99 cap per year, per donor, per recipient.⁸

What You May Accept if Offered: Gifts including free attendance that total no more than $49.99 in a single instance. Cash and cash equivalents are prohibited.

Events in Your Honor

What It Is: An event nominally in your honor is an event “in honor of” you, but where you are not the host, nor do you receive any particular benefit. An event in your honor is not considered a gift to you. The event could be a widely-attended event, a reception, or any other type of event. The event could be in honor of a single Member or employee or a group of Members or employees.

Requirements of the Exception: For an event to be nominally in your honor, the identity of the event organizer must be made clear to all participants. You may not be listed as the host or sponsor of the event, nor may you be involved in the planning and organizing of the event. You may not receive any particular benefit from the event. You may not ask the event sponsor to host the event, nor may you ask others for support for the event, both monetary and in-kind.⁹

What You May Accept from Event Organizer if Offered: The full cost of the event will not be a gift to you. However, the event must meet a gift exception to accept free attendance.

Detailed information on the provisions of the gift rule regarding attendance at events is available in the Committee’s House Ethics Manual 2022 Print, the text of which is on the Committee’s website, <https://ethics.house.gov/house-ethics-manual>.
