REVISED SAV AND ASC PROCESS

Changes highlighted green

ISC adopts SAV

SAV sent to full Committee

Respondent has 7 days to appeal pre-SAV rulings of the ISC to full Committee

Committee has 14 days to grant appeal

Respondent has another 14 days to submit a Response to the SAV

Chair "designates" ASC

Either party can move for judgment on pre-hearing record

Respondent has 10 days to object to ASC Membership

At least 10 days before hearing, both parties must share names of witnesses, and new evidence (must protect victims)

Respondent may "apply" for subpoenas, which "may be granted" if relevant and made "at a reasonable time"

Parties can object to witnesses/evidence up to 5 days before the hearing

Non-dispositive motions ruled on by chair; dispositive motions by ASC

ASC hearing within 45 days of SAV

ASC begins with opening remarks from Chair, RM

Committee counsel then Respondent's counsel give opening statements

Committee/Respondent counsel introduce evidence and direct and cross examine witnesses; Chair can permit rebuttals/redirect/re-cross

Respondent's counsel and Committee counsel give closing statements

"As soon as practicable after all testimony and evidence have been presented," ASC determines if counts proven by cler and convincing evidence

Findings reported to Committee, which then holds Sanctions hearing

Any motion for judgment on the pre-hearing record is heard first

If granted for all counts, no further testimony or evidence
